

BrightPath Digital

Company Overview

BrightPath Digital is a cybersecurity-focused managed services provider headquartered in Berlin, Germany.

Business Focus

BrightPath focuses on cybersecurity, secure cloud transformation and managed security services.

Industries Served

The company primarily serves financial services, healthcare, manufacturing and professional services organizations.

Geographic Presence

BrightPath is headquartered in Berlin and primarily serves customers across Germany and European markets.

Core Capabilities

BrightPath has expert cybersecurity capabilities along with advanced cloud, DevOps and application modernization capabilities.

Technology Expertise

The company specializes in security operations, cloud security, secure application modernization and DevSecOps.

Services Offered

Services include managed security, security assessments, cloud security, DevSecOps and application modernization.

Partner Ecosystem

BrightPath participates in Microsoft and AWS partner programs.

Certifications & Expertise

The company maintains certified cybersecurity and cloud professionals.

Typical Customer Profile

BrightPath typically works with organizations that have strict security requirements or are modernizing their technology environments.

Key Strengths

Cybersecurity and secure cloud transformation are the company's primary strengths.

Differentiators

BrightPath combines managed security operations with cloud modernization capabilities.

Recent Initiatives

The company has expanded its DevSecOps and cloud security offerings.

Strategic Focus

Its strategic focus includes zero-trust security, cloud security and secure application modernization.

Summary

BrightPath Digital is a cybersecurity-focused MSP with strong expertise in cloud security, DevSecOps and secure application modernization.